

Study Travel Fund

Northern Bank

Northern Bank Study Travel Fund

Hoping to study abroad?

Would you like to complete part of your studies abroad but are worried about the cost?

If so, a new community programme being introduced by Northern Bank could help.

Northern Bank Study Travel Fund will provide 20 students with the opportunity to expand their horizons and knowledge with a non-repayable grant of £1000

Who can apply?

The Northern Bank Study Travel Fund programme is open to all students who meet the following criteria:-

- Students must have completed at least two years of full-time study on a first degree course (or other higher education course as prescribed in Schedule 3 of the Education (Student Support) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2007
- Students must have passed end-of-year course exams
- Students must provide a letter of confirmation from the institution of education they are attending in the UK or in Ireland
- Students must provide a letter of confirmation from the institution of education abroad (which for the purposes of Northern Bank Study Travel Fund means outside the UK and Ireland) that they have been accepted to study there for at least three months
- Students must be 20 years of age or more by September in the year they wish to travel
- Students must have a home (family) address in Northern Ireland
- The programme is not open to employees of Northern Bank and their families

How to apply?

From February 2008 application forms will be available from all Northern Bank branches or you can download a copy from www.northernbank.co.uk.

You will find the closing date for receipt of applications on the Northern Bank website and on the application form.

Northern Bank Study Travel Fund is run on a lottery basis and that the success or otherwise of applications is down to nothing else but pure chance and the luck of the draw. Northern Bank will not enter into further discussions with unsuccessful applicants once the results are announced.

To register your interest email your details to VAP@northernbank.co.uk