FAO: Design Graduates

Date: 03/06/2008

Post: Junior Graphic Designer

Contract: Full-Time

Post: Junior Graphic Designer

As a junior graphic designer at Nolka Design you will work as part of a creative and proactive design team in the production of good quality design solutions in response to design briefs and in conjunction with the requirements of the client, creative director or designated project leader using a mix of creative skills and commercial/design awareness.

You will be required to prepare and present your work for print, web or digital media [or any other media as required] in accordance with the criteria set out by the design brief and creative director

As a junior designer you should be able to demonstrate imaginative and creative flair, awareness of current trends in the visual arts, working knowledge of the main design software packages and an understanding of time management.

The main responsibilities:

- adhering to and implementing Nolka Design's 'Design Methodologies';
- acting on the guidance and direction provided by the creative director;
- exercising good time management throughout the design stages;
- interpreting the client's business needs through consultation with the creative director and in conjunction with the Job/Design Brief;
- thinking and expressing your ideas creatively and with a reasonable degree of originality in response to the job/design brief and advice from the creative director;
- using informed decision making to develop a design brief and meet the constraints of cost, time and client requirements;
- producing accurately prepared and high quality design work for print/web;
- keeping abreast of developments in design and IT, particularly design software;
- working well as a team member with junior and senior design staff and management
- working to tight deadlines;
- presenting your design work in a professional manner/style for review to the creative director, project leader and clients
- carrying out additional duties as and when required;
- working additional hours as and when required within reason
